

Scheduling Worksheet

Fill in each hour. Write what you plan to do during each time block (work, appointments, meals, exercise, recovery activities, relaxation, etc.). Be realistic. Don't overload your schedule. Include time for self-care and breaks. Make sure you also get enough sleep! Use the Notes section to add anything you need to remember about the day, such as special tasks or reflections. Use the Reminders section to write important things you want to carry with you (affirmations, goals, triggers to avoid, support contacts).
