Reflection Questions

It looks like this may not be your first relapse analysis activity. That's okay! Each time you reflect, you gain new insights into your patterns and strengths.

1. What did you notice this time that you didn't see before?

2. Do any patterns keep showing up across different lapses?

3. Were there warning signs you recognized earlier this time?

4. What strategies did you try to interrupt the lapse before it happened? How well did they work?

5. What could you do differently next time to strengthen your recovery?
